

The Kent Historical Museum Presents

Little Explorers

Where Preschoolers and Kindergarteners Explore History

<http://kenthistoricalmuseum.org/education/programs/little-explorers>

Henry the Museum Puppet helps introduce the day's topic—and gives hugs before you go home!

Little Explorers offers beginning history, social studies, and museum learning. We also work on other skills to prepare children for preschool, Kindergarten, and beyond!

Tuition is Free!

(Pre-registration is required. Donations are appreciated and help us cover material costs.)

Led by Miss Allison, the Museum Curator, Little Explorers sessions always include puppetry, hands-on Museum exploration, crafts, and dramatic play to help kids learn!

Here's what parents of past Little Explorers have said about the program:

- "Love, love, love this program! Very worthwhile!"
- "Extremely good program—well planned—totally engaging for the children."
- "It is very important for the younger generation to learn about history... This class fulfills a missing link that is not offered anywhere else!"

*Parent or caregiver must stay with child(ren) during sessions
